PREFACE

The present volume is issued a year late because at the customary time of issuing it I was very much in doubt whether the support given the previous volumes warranted me in getting out a third, and being very busy I postponed a decision in the matter. Doubtless too, many have grown impatient at the time which has elapsed between the announcement of my determination to publish and the appearance of the book. This is natural enough for they could not be expected to realize the number of letters written in my endeavor to reach all interested persons and later the amount of writing, copying and proof-reading done in seeing the book through the press,—this of course all in addition to my regular work as teacher. All these days I have endeavored to keep the work moving and get the book out as early as possible.

G. E. CONDGON.

Sac City, Iowa, Feb. 9, 1906.

NOTE.—The printers through an error natural enough owing to the time of printing have headed some of the pages wrongly "Waterman Year Book, 1905."

* A Genealogical record of the Stryker family, compiled by William S. Stryker, of Trenton, N. J., was printed at Camden, N. J., in 1887. The book is an octavo of 112 pages and 300 copies were printed and privately distributed. The author died some five years ago but his daughter informs me the book contains no reference to Peter Stryker and his descendants. Jan Stryker was born in 1615 at Ruinen, Prov. of Drenth, Holland, and died in 1697 in Midwout, L. I.; he was chief magistrate of Midwout, schepen of the Dutch towns of Long Island, representative in the great Landtdag at New Amsterdam, April 10, 1664 (American Ancestry III, 48). It is very probable that Peter Stryker was among his descendants as the Waterman Strykers claim that the family first settled in the vicinity of New York, either on Long Island or in New Jersey.

All were born in New York. Mr. Stryker left his native state in 1871 moving to Bardolph, McDonough county, Illinois, residing there till February, 1874, when he moved to his late home in Afton township. Mrs. Stryker died March 4, 1891. Mr. Stryker served as supervisor, also assessor and collector of Afton township. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, belonging to the blue lodge of Waterman and the Royal Arcanum of DeKalb. In earlier days he was well known as an auctioneer at public sales. He died March 29, 1904. He had been in failing health during the winter, but was about the house and often on the streets of Waterman. ADVERTISEMENT

I am very desirous of obtaining all material which will throw light on the early history of DeKalb county and particularly Clinton township. I have now in my private library the following

RECORDS

I. A line for line transcript of the Johnson's Grove church records, 1852-1861, carefully and minutely indexed. (I am led to believe there was a second volume of records. Does anyone know where it is?)

II. A line for line transcript of the records of the Town Clerk of Clinton township (first 69 pages, 1850-1859).

III. A line for line transcript of John Boston's records as Justice of the Peace (first 50 pages, 1856-7).

IV. A complete transcript of the inscriptions in Johnson's Grove Cemetery, dating from 1848.

V. A complete transcript of the inscriptions in the North Clinton Cemetery, dating from 1862.

VI. Gleanings from the Aurora Beacon, 1858-1868, of items relating to Clinton township and vicinity.

VII. Gleanings from the Newberry Library, Chicago, and other sources, relative to the genealogy of Waterman families.

INFORMATION WANTED

I should like information of any sort concerning the following persons who were members of the Johnson's Grove church; where they lived or with whom, whither they went or when they died, and names of descendants or near relatives.

Bates, Nelson, baptized Oct. 4, 1857.

Cain (or Cane), James, baptized June 10, 1860.

Clark, Sarah, an original member, 1852.

Curtis, Curtiss, or Curtice, John, given letter to unite with Clinton Center church, October 4, 1856.

Erwin, William.

Flinn, John, baptized October 25, 1857.

Flinn, "Sister" (wife of above?) baptized June 5, 1859.

Fonda, Jesse K., baptized April 15, 1560,

Golding, J. M., baptized Jan. 16, 1859.

Hart, James P., on committee, Dec. 3, 1853.

GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH

Each summer I am accustomed to spend a considerable time in the Newberry Library of Chicago in genealogical research. As far as my time permits I shall be glad to accept commissions from others at reasonable rates. If you are interested, write for further particulars and terms. The Newberry Library offers exceptional opportunities for this work, one room containing thousands of volumes carefully indexed being devoted to genealogy exclusively. My acquaintance with the library and experience in the work enables me to serve you better than you could yourself.

The Black Hawk War

That event, which transferred the upper Mississippi from the red to the white man, may be said to transcend all others in importance to the Mississippi Valley. Besides its importance in that particular, it was vastly important by reason of the great names to be found in the muster rolls: Capt. Abraham Lincoln, Lieut. Jefferson Davis, Lieut. Zachary Taylor, Gen. Winfield Scott, Col. John A. McClernand, Lieut. Albert Sidney Johnson, Lieut, Joseph E. Johnston, Lieut. Edward D. Baker, Col. J. J. Hardin, and U. S. Senators, Cabinet Ministers, Governors, etc., without number. The most dramatic and interesting bit of Mississippi Valley history.

Appendixes devoted especially to the services of Capt. Lincoln and Lieut. Davis are added, each of which contains many rare illustrations.

Three hundred rare and interesting views and portraits are presented for the first time in the book of that title, now published. Documents heretofore unknown are included at length. In fact a large octavo volume is now offered to the public which should be in every library.

The residence of "Old Shabbona," the friend of the white men, in the southern part of DeKalb county gives this volume particular interest to the readers of the Year Book.

A copy of the book will be sent to any address for examination and approval.

PREFACE

Again I am sending forth a volume of the Year Book. Publication has been delayed far beyond my own anticipations. A change of the field of my labors has been one cause of its lateness, as also the fact that its preparation must ever be made subordinate to my principal work that of teaching. The present volume will be found more than usually full, with several new features added. No one regrets more than I the fact that some of the biographical sketches are exceedingly short, but as a rule the length was limited only by the amount of information obtainable. Relatives and interested persons were appealed to but neglected or refused to reply. My chief interest is in the excellence of the volume and not in the financial returns. If you are willing to cooperate with me in making the book the best possible, accord all my letters a prompt, careful and complete reply.

The printers have aided me in every way in my desire to make the book of a high grade mechanically and I believe it will be found unusually free from errors.

G. E. CONGDON.

Jenning's Seminary he received what he thought was a clear and definite call from God to devote his life to the Christian ministry, and on the nomination of Rev. C. R. Robinson, he received from the quarterly conference a license to preach. In August, 1897, he went to Kansas and was appointed pastor of the church at Wathena. In March of the following year he received an appointment under the Missionary Society to work in Iquique, Chile, as teacher in the English College. Here he met Miss Elma Wines, of Albion, Mich., one of the teachers of the college, whom he married January 1, 1901. Mr. Allen and his wife continued as teachers in this college for about two years when they were granted nine months' leave of absence, which vacation they spent principally at Waterman and Albion, Mich. In December, 1903, they returned to South America and entered the evangelistic work, Mr. Allen receiving an appointment as pastor of a Spanish speaking church. Not until September, 1905, did Mr. Allen give up his work, forced by the dread disease which was preying upon him, and seek to regain his health by a long sea voyage and rest in California. After a voyage of forty days he arrived in San Francisco about Oct. 25, proceeding to the Raymond Ranch near Los Gatos. Later he was taken to the Sanitarium at Los Gatos where he died Dec. 30, 1905. The remains were brought to Waterman and interred in the North Clinton cemetery.

* C. F. Greenwood was a son of Thomas Jefferson Greenwood and Sally Fairchild. Thomas J. Greenwood was born May 7, 1803, and was a son of Thomas Greenwood and Mary Goodrich. Mary Goodrich was born May 11, 1765, and her ancestry is given in full in the Goodrich Genealogy (1889). I have spent much time investigating the Greenwood ancestry but so far have been unable to trace it back of Thomas. It seems probable however, that he was a descendant of Thomas Greenwood, a weaver, who was born in 1643, came to Cambridge, Mass., 1667, and died 1693. His children were Thomas (born 1671, died young; Thomas (born 1673, graduated at Harvard, 1696); John; James (born 1687), and William (born 1689). The name Thomas was common in the family. It should be said however, that Nathaniel and Samuel Greenwood were early settlers in Boston, possibly brothers of Thomas, and the claim is made that all three were sons of Miles Greenwood of Norwich, Eng. (American Ancestry, Vol. 8, page 8).

OLIVER P. JOHNSON

The first settler in Clinton township was Oliver P. Johnson who was born in Boston, Erie county, N. Y. Oct. 21, 1812. He belonged to a family of pioneers, his father being one of the pioneers of Erie county, N. Y., * which place however he left and came in 1820 to Sangamon

* "In November, 1803, too, Charles and Oliver Johnson, two brothers, made a purchase in the present town of Boston, near the village of Boston Center. * * The price was $2.25 per acre. Charles, with his family, lived with (Didymus C.) Kinney through the winter, and moved on to his own place the next spring. * * Kinney and Johnson with their families, in that solitary cabin in the valley of the Eighteen-Mile, were the only residents of Erie county south of the reservation in the winter of 1803-4."—Centennial History of Erie County, N. county, Ill., removing a few years later to McHenry county settling at a point near Hennepin. Oliver Johnson married July 13, 1833, Elizabeth Ross a daughter of Joseph Ross an early settler in Paw Paw township. Their children were: (1) Joseph, born April 1, 1834; (2) Elizabeth, born Sept. 27, 1836; (3) Charles C., born Sept. 26, 1838; (4) Carrie G. born July 2, 1843, died March 2, 1880; (5) Oliver P. the subject of this sketch; (6) James P., born Nov. 17, 1852, now living at Amboy; and (7) one little girl who died in infancy. The date of Oliver P. Johnson's setlement at Johnson's Grove is a matter of some doubt but is generally accepted as 1835 * He resided there until 1838 when he removed to Melugin's Grove, Lee county; in 1873 he removed to West Brooklyn where he died July 24, 1892 and his wife Oct. 4, 1895.

Oliver P. Johnson was born at Melugin's Grove, May

* J. P. Johnson of Amboy, a son, says O. P. Johnson was married in Ross Grove in 1833 and settled at Johnson's Grove the same year. Mr. Johnson and his wife were present at the first Old Settlers' picnic, held in 1877, and on that occasion he claimed to have settled at the grove in 1834. R. M. Pritchard in a series of letters published in the Waterman Leader, and quoted in the DeKalb county Album, gives the date of Johnson's settlement as April 22, 1835. Mr. Pritchard was born in 1830, and his father bought Johnson's claim when he left it. The exactness of his statement and his known intelligence favor the correctness of his dates. Opposed to the earlier dates are the following facts. The History of LaSalle county (1886), Vol. II, page 168, in speaking of Adams township, says "In the same year (1834) Messrs. Ross and Johnson made some improvements on the south side of the grove, but sold it and left the next year." This seems to favor Mr. Pritchard's date. The same history, Vol. I, page 885, says, "The first marriage (in Adams township) was that of O. P. Johnson and wife. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Bags." Further the first settlers of Paw Paw township (Ross Grove) came early in 1835 and "Joseph Ross," says the DeKalb County Album, "was among the pioneers of 1836."

1, 1848. He married June 1, 1871, Mary Morey, daughter of Edwin Morey of Lee Center. To them were born eight children, seven of whom are now living. He was taken ill in December, 1904, and died Sunday, June 11, 1905.

DO YOU WANT to know more of your ancestry? In reading through the pages of the Year Book you have noticed that in many cases the biographical sketches were accompanied by a genealogy of the family. Sometimes this matter was furnished by the family but more frequently it was unknown to them and the result of my own research. A little from my own experience may be interesting. In 1891 a cousin gave me the line of descent shown opposite. My interest being aroused by this I began a spirited search for ancestors which has continued until the present time. I corresponded with relatives, obtained copies of old records, wills, and epitaphs, wrote to town clerks for copies of their records and corresponded with genealogists. Soon there was given to me the opportunity of consulting the large genealogical collections stored in the Public and Newberry Libraries of Chicago, and now I spend several weeks every summer in them. As a result I now know the names of nearly a thousand ancestors. Not uncles and aunts and cousins, mind you, but persons from whom I am directly descended. Not only do I know their names but I know something of their manner of life, their achievements and places of residence. Now what I have done for myself perhaps I can do for you. Of course it costs money. One can't live in Chicago or carry on a large correspondence for nothing. The material I have collected is worth several hundred dollars, but don't let that discourage you. An outlay of a dollar or two sometimes brings interesting and surprising results. I am always willing to tell what the prospects of a successful investigation are, and carry on the research subject to your orders. If you are interested let me hear from you.

* Lewis Latham was falconer to King Charles I. This picture, painted in oil, was probably brought to America by his daughter Frances, was for a long time in the possession of the Holden family, and now hangs in the home of a descendant of Lewis Latham, William Lukens Elkins, the millionaire capitalist, of Philadelphia.

I am very desirous of obtaining all material which will throw light on the early history of DeKalb county and particularly Clinton township. I have now in my private library the following RECORDS.

I. A line for line transcript of the Johnson's Grove church records, 1852-1861, carefully and minutely indexed. (I am led to believe there was a second volume of records. Does anyone know where it is?)

II. A line for line transcript of the records of the Town Clerk of Clinton township (first 69 pages, 1850-1859.)

III. A line for line transcript of John Boston's records as Justice of the Peace (first 60 pages, 1856-7).

IV. A complete transcript of the inscriptions in Johnson's Grove Cemetery, dating from 1848.

V. A complete transcript of the inscriptions in the North Clinton Cemetery, dating from 1862.

VI. Gleanings from the Aurora Beacon, 1858-1870, of items relating to Clinton township and vicinity.

VII. Gleanings from the Newberry Library, Chicago, and other sources, relating to the genealogy of Waterman families.

FIFTH ANNUAL VOLUME

EWING HERBERT PRINTER
1908

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1908, by George Edward Congdon, in the office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington.

Preface

The present number of the Year Book is sent forth as a worthy companion to the four which have preceded it. Of course it has its imperfections but on the part of the compiler neither time nor money has been spared to make the book a thing of beauty and of value. I invite from my readers suggestions of things they would like to see in the Year Book and of changes that might improve it. Again I request that you favor me with a prompt, courteous, and full reply to all legitimate requests for information. A failure to do this has been one of the chief causes of the delay in the publication of this and previous volumes. Send me at the time of happening notices of events modeled after the forms used in the Year Book and they will be preserved for use. If you are the clerk or secretary of any society given place in the Year Book, send me immediately after each election a full report. Donations of programs, invitations and other historical material are invited.

Although the 1907 Year Book is well under way subscribers to the same are hereby notified that, much to my regret, the book will not appear until fall.

G. E. CONGDON.

He served in the Civil War, first as a volunteer in Company C, First Michigan Cavalry, and at the expiration of his time reenlisted in Company A, 19th U. S. Infantry. He entered the Danville home only a few months before his death. Mr. Baremore was three times married and had children, none of whom survive. Susan, his second wife died May 7, 1895, aged seventy years. On June 9, 1897, he married Mrs. Elizabeth Fowler, who survives.

JOHN C. BEVERIDGE.

The Beveridge family * of DeKalb county derive their descent from George Beveridge, a weaver in Cash Fens (street), Strathinglo (town), Fifeshire Scotland. He was probably born in that locality about 1715. His wife, Janet Lourie (or Lowrie), was born in Abernethy of the same shire, April 16, 1721. They had at least three children: Matthew, Andrew, and Ann. Further than this we know nothing of the elder George except that he had died and his widow remarried again in 1762. Her second husband, George Fotheringham of Auchtermuchty, Fifeshire, lived only a few years and had one daughter, Jennet. It was this widowed mother with a part of her family who first came to America. She with Andrew and Ann Beveridge and their half-sister Jennet Fotheringame arrived in Boston harbor in July, 1775, at the time of the siege of the city. The port being blockaded, they landed at Marblehead and from there traveled across the country on foot to Cambridge, N. Y., where they made their home. In those days, a tramp across that wild and rough country was no easy task, and it shows the disposition and character of those sturdy people whose determination and perserverance found them a home in this then new land of America. The other son, Matthew, probably the oldest, had remained in Scotland. He died March 23, 1823, aged 73 years. His home may still be seen in Cash Fens with his initials and those of his wife, Jenet Thompson, carved in stone over the doorway with the date of erection 1798. They had at least two sons, George, whose daughter Ann died in this very house only a few years ago and Matthew, a shoemaker, who emigrated to America about 1840. His granddaughter, Mary Jane Miller, still lives in Columbus, Ohio. There seems to be no one living now of that branch bearing the name Beveridge.

The second year after the family settled in Washington county, N. Y., Gen. Burgoyne came down from Canada on his famous mission. The army camped near Cambridge and at that time Andrew Beveridge joined the British ranks. He was among those sent over to Bennington, Vt., where they were so well whipped by Col. Stark and his men. Be it said to the credit of our ancestor that not only was he wounded, but he was one of the last to leave the field. It is not difficult to understand why he shoud take the stand that he did. Raised in the country of King George and coming to this land after the war had begun he thought of it as a rebellion on the part of the colonists. Being a quiet, reserved young man of strong convictions (stubbornness) it was a matter of conscience with him. However, this ended his fighting history. He spent the remainder of the time of war working at the weavers trade in his cellar. His children always seemed ashamed of the part he had taken and seldom mentioned it but they and his grandchildren made up for the loyalty he lacked by their service in 1812 and our Civil war. His property was confiscated by the government.

In 1784 Andrew married Isabelle Cummings, a native of Scotland. There seems to have existed some jealousy between him and his brother-in-law, James Small, a Revolutionary officer who had also acquired the confiscated property. Because of this lack of harmony Andrew determined to move so far away from Small that he would never hear of him again. Accordingly he went up into Hebron township (about 12 or 15 miles from Cambridge!) and there made a permanent home. It is located two miles north of the village of West Hebron and eighty rods north of Hebron U. P. church. There he spent the remainder of his days, rearing a large family and passing away in 1835, in his 83d year. His letters would indicate that he was a Christian of strong convictions of that old type which made martyrs in Scotland when their faith was put to the test.

The children of Andrew Beveridge were: 1. George, who married Ann Hoy, and became one of the early settlers of DeKalb county; 2. Thomas; 3. Jennet, who fell a victim of the plague of 1813 in her 24th year; 4. James; 5. Alexander; 6. John, who had two daughters: 7. Ann, who died in her 61st year unmarried: 8. Matthew, who was the father of Mrs. Isabell McClellan, late of Somonauk, Ill.; 9. Andrew, who married Jane Martin * and settled in DeKalb county in 1852; and, 10. David, who had a family of five children.

Alexander, the fifth child, married Sarah McClellan, and had seven children: 1. Andrew, born Sept. 24, 1821, died June 16, 1898; 2. Robert, born Sept. 12, 1823, died Aug. 9, 1900; 3. John C.; 4. Mary Ann, born July 3, 1828, still living at West Hebron, N. Y.; 5. Alexander, born Nov. 2, 1830, died at Harper's Ferry, Dec. 18, 1862, while in the service of his country; 6. Nancy, born July 30, 1833; 7. George, born Feb. 28, 1836, still living in Brooklyn, N. Y. Alexander, the father, died at Hebron, N. Y., June 2, 1874, at the age of 81.

John C. Beveridge, the third son of Alexander and Sarah (McClellan) Beveridge, was born Feb. 3, 1826, in Greenwich township, Washington county, N. Y. Here he lived until his sixth year when he moved with the family to Hebron township of the same county. He spent the greater part of the time in or near this home until the fall of 1862 when he came to DeKalb county, Illinois. Soon afterward he located on the farm in Victor township which has since been his home. On Jan. 10, 1865, he was united in marriage with Mary A. McCleery, eldest daughter of James and Jean (Thomson) McCleery. She was born in Galt, Canada, Jan. 22, 1841, and died in Reinbeck, Iowa, July 31, 1907. To them were born, all in Victor township: 1. Alexander William, Feb. 2, 1866, living at Biggsville, Ill.; 2. James McCleery, Nov. 23, 1867, living at Oregon, Ill.; 3. Albert Elmer, July 3, 1871, died April 30, 1904 *; 4. George, Aug. 19, 1874, died Oct. 3, 1907; 5. Rea, Oct. 30, 1876, living at Cambridge, N. Y.; 6. Mae, Oct. 30, 1876, living at Reinbeck, Iowa; 7. Margaret, Dec. 18, 1878, living at Reinbeck, Iowa; and, 8. Archie G., Jan. 29, 1885, living at Regina, Sask., Canada.

In his early days he united with the Associate church of West Hebron, N. Y., under the pastorate of Rev. A. Anderson. On coming to Illinois he transferred his membership to the United Presbyterian church of Somonauk, in which he has been a conscientious member. The esteem in which he was held by his neighbors and fellow-townsmen is shown by the numerous offices of trust and responsibility he has held, having served as supervisor for a number of terms, as assessor, as secretary and agent of the local insurance company, and as township treasurer from 1874 until the time of his death.

He died at his home in Victor township, Jan. 3, 1906. The funeral was conducted by his pastor Rev. J. A. Speer, and the interment was at Oak Mound cemetery.

She was compelled to give up her work in the Chief office in October, 1905, and died May 27, 1906.

LUCINDA EMERY COLTON.

Anthony Emery *, second son of John and Agnes Emery, was born in Romsey, Hants, England; married Frances ——, and came to America in the ship "James", landing in Boston, June 3, 1635; lived at Ipswich and Newbury, Mass., until 1640 when he removed to Dover, N. *From which statement I infer she was the daughter of Nelson E. Hinkston, who died Aug. 15, 1884, and his wife Phylance Filkins. See biography of Ursula French Hinkston elsewhere in this volume.

Frederick and Hattie (Borchas) Leifheit were of German birth and emigrated to America with their children in 1850. There are also Leifheits in Kendall county who derive their descent from a brother of Frederick, among the number being Andrew Leifheit. The father returned to Kendall county and died about two years later. They were the parents of six children: 1. Henry, who married Frederica Hartman. 2. William, who married Caroline Eckhart. 3. He then sold his hotel and came to Waterman, engaging in the saloon business. Three years later, in 1877, he purchased the hotel, known as the Clinton House, of which he remained proprietor until the time of his death, conducting the saloon in connection as the vote of the village afforded him opportunity. He also held the offices of collector and constable. Politically he was a Republican. He was a charter member of Shabbona Lodge No. 374 A. F. & A. M., and was also a charter member of Fertile Lodge I. O. O. F. at Shabbona. He spent the last ten years with his children

DANIEL D. OLMSTED.

Richard Olmsted * was baptized at Fairsted, Essex, England, Feb. 20, 1612, and came to America with his uncle-James Olmsted. His son, Capt. James Olmsted, was born probably at Hartford, Conn., and married May 1, 1673, Phebe Barlow, daughter of Thomas Barlow, of Fairfield, Conn. He died before April 28, 1731. He was town clerk of Norwalk, Conn., 1678-1707, town judge, and frequently deputy to the General Court. Nathan Olmsted, son of James, was born at Norwalk, Conn., April 27, 1678, and died before February, 1716. He married Dec. 17, 1702, Sarah Keeler, daughter of Ralph Keeler, of Norwalk. Deacon James Olmsted, son of Nathan, was born 1709, and died March 17, 1777. He married Hannah ———, who was born 1708 and died Oct. 5, 1769. He removed to Wilton, Conn., in 1732. Silas Olmsted, son of James, was born at Wilton, Conn., Feb. 18, 1732, and died April 13, 1782. He married March 5, 1753, Abigail DeForest, born 1731, and died Dec. 26, 1766. He married second Lydia Sloan. David Olmsted, son of Silas and Lydia, was born in Wilton, Conn., March 1, 1765, and died Nov. 23, 1855. He married Rebecca Jackson, who was born March 2, 1765, and died at Oak Hill, N. Y., July 16, 1824. She was a daughter of Daniel Jackson, of Wilton, Conn.

Coleman Olmsted, son of David, was born in Wilton, Conn., April 9, 1792. About 1814 he removed to Tioga county, N. Y., near what is now called Odessa, and was a pioneer in that county. He learned the trade of blacksmith and followed it in Tioga county until 1838. In the spring of that year he removed with his family to Illinois and located in LaSalle county. He remained there until the spring of 1841, when he removed to Shabbona township and entered government land. He also purchased a half section of the Reservation. His title was uncertain, and to perfect the same he was compelled to pay for his land three times. In 1846 he moved to Ottawa, LaSalle county, Ill., and for several years lived on a farm. In 1872 he went to Missouri, was unfortunate in his business ventures, lost heavily and returned to the home of his son, D. D. Olmsted, where he died June 5, 1881. He was twice married. His first alliance was with Miss Clara Dauchey, in 1811. To them were born six children: 1. George, Jan. 19, 1816; 2. Rebecca, July 5, 1818, and died in 1849; 3. John D., July 7, 1820; 4. Daniel D., June 21, 1822; 5. Jane, Aug. 28, 1824; 6. Clara, Nov. 5, 1826. Mrs. Olmsted died July 14, 1828, and Nov. 4 of that year Mr. Olmsted was united in marriage with Mrs. Hannah Bedient. Four children were the issue of the union: 7. Clara M., Aug. 6, 1829; 8. Samuel B., Jan. 24, 1831; 9. Hannah, Sept. 9, 1833; 10. Mary, Aug. 11, 1846.

Daniel D. Olmsted was born in Catharine, Tioga (now Schuyler) county, N. Y., June 21, 1822. He lived at home assisting his father and attending the common schools until 1835, when he removed with his parents to Big Flat, Chemung county, N. Y., and three years later, 1838, came with them to Illinois. He settled in Clinton township in 1847, residing there 46 years and then removed to Ithaca, N. Y., where he lived until his death. In politics, Mr. Olmsted, in the days of the old Whig party, was a member of it, but since the organization of the Republican party, had acted and voted with it. He was always public-spirited. He saved the station being at Shabbona Grove instead of near Ross Grove. His wife joined in mortgaging their home farm "to save their beloved church from going down," but alas their sacrifice was in vain. He married Nov. 10, 1846, Ann B. McNish, a daughter of Alexander McNish, of Washington county, N. Y., in which county she was born. To them were born two children, both in Clinton township: 1. James, born and died in 1848. 2. Anna Jane, born and died in 1849. The wife and mother died July 19, 1849, and Mr. Olmsted was again married Dec. 12, 1850, to Elizabeth A. Frost, at Catharine, Schuyler county, N. Y. She was a daughter of Jonathan and Elizabeth L. (Sherwood) Frost. She was born in Catharine May 28, 1816, and died in Clinton township, July 30, 1886. To them were born four children: 3. Francis D., Nov. 9, 1851, residing in Clinton township; 4. George J., born Sept. 1, 1854, married Amelia Harris and resides in Shabbona; 5. Charles Sherwood, born March 6, 1856, and died Oct. 1, same year. 6. Charles James, born Sept. 13, 1858, and died March 9, 1861. On Feb. 22, 1887, Mr. Olmsted married at Ithaca, N. Y., Lydia A. Webley, a daughter of William and Esther (Olmsted) Webley, who survives. He died at Ithaca, N. Y., Jan. 26, 1906.

Eunice O. Merrill was a daughter of Chester L. and Seraph S. (Wiswell) Merrill, natives of New York. She was born in Troy, N. Y., June 27, 1851. She was married Dec. 23, 1874, at Aurora, Ill., to Franklin Henry Perry, son of Henry Lee and Charlotte (Hall) Perry. He was born in Oneida county, N. Y., Jan. 25, 1845. After marriage Mr. Perry conducted a store at Kaneville, Illinois, and later at Waterman (1879 —). He finally removed to Chicago, where his wife died March 28, 1906. They had one daughter, Helen Merrill, born at Waterman, Jan. 25, 1886.

She was born in Afton, Feb. 7, 1867. To them was born one child, born March 11, and died March 14, 1906. Mr. Rollins died April 9, 1906, the result of a distressing accident. On the evening previous he had gone to the DeKalb pumping station to oil the machinery, when in some way his clothing caught and drew his arm into the gearing. Though his arm was torn from the shoulder he managed to break away and cross the street. Physicians did all in their power, the arm was amputated at the shoulder but at about four in the morning he passed away.

CLARK B. SAMSON.

daughter of Rudolph and Margaret (Walrath) Sheibly, who was born at Ephratah, N. Y., April 22, 1817. To them were born five children, all at Little Falls, N. Y.: 1. Huldah M., born March 18, 1843, married J. C. Hubbell, April —, 1882, and lives at Idaho Falls, Idaho. 2. Clark B. 3. Clara, born June 11, 1847, married George Harper *, March —, 1892, and lives at Kirksville, Mo. 4. Hattie, born April 1, 1849, married Rev. N. O. Freeman, May 29, 1872, and lives at Sheridan, Ill. 5. He died at Sandwich Sept. 6, 1878, and his wife Feb. 20, 1895. Rudolph Sheibly died at their home Oct. 22, 1856. The three, with the daughter Helen, are buried in the North Clinton cemetery.

Clark B. Samson was born at Little Falls, N. Y., July 1, 1845, and came to Clinton township with his parents. Here he attended the district schools and at the age of seventeen went to Jennings Seminary at Aurora. His first attempt at teaching was in Big Rock township where he was very successful. After attending school again at the Seminary he taught in his home district and later in the district south. Soon after, he entered the preparatory school at Ann Arbor, Mich., where he prepared for the University of Michigan. He spent two years at the university after which he came home and went into the lumber and coal business with Robert Humphrey. The railroad had just been built through Waterman and they did a good business, but he had other plans and so sold his interests and entered a law office in Chicago to read law. After being admitted to the bar he practiced with the lawyer with whom he studied, William Law, Jr. Upon the retirement of Mr. Law, Mr. Samson went into partnership with Mr. Wilcox with whom he remained until the time of his death. He was a member of the Odd Fellows organization and for several years a member of their state board of appeals. Later in life he became a Mason and at the time of his death was a thirty-second degree Mason. He belonged to the Illinois Club and the Westward Ho Golf Club. April 22, 1902, he was married to Ida Haskins of Los Angeles, Calif., and four beautiful years were given them. They travelled through the west and east but nothing had the attraction for him that his own home had. In the winter of 1905 his health began to fail and in April of 1906 he submitted to a surgical operation. On his return from the hospital he rallied for a time, but a fatal disease had too strong a hold upon him, and, while everything that money and skill could do was done, it could not prevent the evil day, and on Aug. 26, 1906, he passed away.

ELMER RAY WILTSE.

Elmer Ray Wiltse was a son of George and Sarah Jane (Dickinson) Wiltse, and was born at Laplata, Mo., March 6, 1881. When he was about two years old his parents moved to Waterman. REVEREND J. M. GRISWOLD'S STORY.

Rev. J. M. Griswold, whose biography is given elsewhere in this volume, related the following story as an actual experience in his life:

One afternoon after hard study I was lying on my couch when suddenly I seemed to be in the old home in England seated at the kitchen table. At the other end stood my mother doing the week's ironing. Pausing in her work she looked up and seeing me gave an exclamation of surprise. Instantly the picture vanished. I thought little of the matter at the time believing I had been asleep for a few moments and dreamed. What was my surprise when, in the time it usually took a letter to cross the Atlantic, I received a letter from my mother in which she said that on a certain day she had been standing at the table ironing when, looking up, she saw me distinctly at the farther end. She gave a little exclamation of surprise and immediately the vision vanished. On comparing dates and making allowance for the difference in time between England and America I found that the two visions had occurred at the same time.

I am very desirous of obtaining all material which will throw light on the early history of DeKalb county and particularly Clinton township. I have now in my private library the following RECORDS.

I. A line for line transcript of the Johnson's Grove church records, 1852-1861, carefully and minutely indexed. (I am led to believe there was a second volume of records. Does anyone know where it is?)

II. A line for line transcript of the records of the Town Clerk of Clinton township (first 69 pages, 1850-1859).

III. A line for line transcript of John Boston's records as Justice of the Peace (first 75 pages, 1856-7).

IV. A complete transcript of the inscriptions in Johnson's Grove Cemetery, dating from 1848.

V. A complete transcript of the inscriptions in the North Clinton Cemetery, dating from 1862.

VI. Gleanings from the Aurora Beacon, 1858-1873, of items relating to Clinton township and vicinity.

VII. Gleanings from the Newberry Library, Chicago, and other sources, relating to the genealogy of Waterman families.

WHO WERE YOUR GRANDPARENTS?

Genealogy is the science of family history. Every summer I spend several weeks in one of the largest genealogical libraries of the country, and will gladly carry on investigations for others at reasonable prices. Pedigrees traced, and put in chart or book form. Genealogies compiled. Family trees constructed.

Travel Within the Reach of All

THE UNDERWOOD TRAVEL SYSTEM.

This Travel System is unique. It consists of travel of the truest kind, and yet without utilizing either railroad or ship, or any of the ordinary bodily conveyances. This statement is so extraordinary that you will not believe it at first sight, but a careful examination of this Travel System, and some actual experiences with it, will convince you of the truthfulness of these claims.

Prof. James H. Breasted, Ph. D.—"By means of this Travel System the joys of travel can be extended to that large class of our people who thirst for an acquaintance with the distant lands of other ages, but are prevented by the expense involved, or by the responsibilities of home, business or profession."

Prof. R. B. Richardson, Ph. D.—"Direct access to Greece can be given by this Travel System from every classroom, student's room, and from homes generally."

Rev. Jesse L. Hurlbut, D. D.—"Now, in a real sense, it is possible for all to know what it means to stand in all the more important places throughout the land of Palestine.
